

Portland Chapter Monthly Meeting Sponsorship Application

Who is CSI? The Construction Specifications Institute (CSI) is an international technical organization that works to organize, standardize, retrieve and communicate construction information. CSI is unique in that it facilitates an exchange of information between all participants in the construction process -- a benefit not found in one-discipline organizations.

How Can CSI Help You Grow Your Business? By supporting CSI your company will:

- Get an edge on the competition
- Gain exposure to new business opportunities before they even hit the market
- Increase your company's visibility
- Opportunity to tap a network of professional contacts to turn to for product information or help on a project

Meeting sponsorship includes:

- Table top display during social hour
- Logo displayed during meeting, on the CSI website
- Company name mentioned during meeting announcements

Sponsorship Opportunities:

- Member $250.00
- Non-Member $350.00
